

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

We are committed to equipping you with the tools and support you need to take action. We have witnessed the impact of Trump's tariffs and their potential consequences. Unifor is the only labour organization included in discussions with the Prime Minister and Members of Parliament across Canada to respond and take action.

Our Research Department, along with our leadership, is diligently working for you and all Canadians. Please take a moment to read Lana's message for more details.

In Peace, Solidarity and Appreciation

Mary Ellen –
The Canada-U.S. relationship has forever changed.

The threats of unjust tariffs on Canadian goods by U.S. President Donald Trump are an economic call-to-arms. It's a call that I hope you choose to answer.

To face this fight, Unifor is inviting all members to Protect Canadian Jobs.

Bad policy from the Trump administration could hurt workers on both sides of the border for years to come. For our most integrated sectors, this could bring devastating consequences.

Unifor has called for all levels of government and industry to step up and coordinate a response to the continued tariff threats on targeted Canadian industries including auto, steel and aluminum, wood products, copper and others.

Visit and share the new website to understand what you, your union, and your governments can do to take these tariffs head-on.

In solidarity,

Lana Payne
Unifor National President
