BYLAWS

1. NAME

This organization shall be known as Unifor Amalgamated Local 673.

2. CONSTITUTIONS AND BY-LAWS

The constitution of this Local Union shall be the constitution of the National Union, Unifor and these by-laws shall be in all respects subordinate to said constitution and all applications and interpretations thereof.

3. FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year of this Local Union shall begin on January 1st and end on December 31st.

4.1 MEMBERSHIP

The Local Union shall be composed of workers eligible for membership in Unifor.

4.2 RESPONSIBILITIES

Each member in good standing of this Local Union has the right to nominate and vote, express opinions on all subjects before the Local Union, to attend all membership meetings and express views, arguments and opinions on all matters and business, including candidates for office, properly before the meeting; to meet and assemble freely with other members and generally, to participate in the activities of the Local Union in a responsible manner consistent with good conscience in order to present and discuss factually and honestly the issues and personalities upon which the membership must base its decisions. These rights shall at all times, be subject to the rules of procedure governing meetings and other Unifor rules and regulations contained in the constitution, by-laws and other official rules of the Local Union and Bourinot's Rules of Order. A member in exercising the foregoing rights and privileges shall not take any irresponsible action which would tend to jeopardize or destroy, or be detrimental to, either the Local or National Unions as organizations, or their free democratic heritage, or which would interfere with the performance by this Local Union or the National Union of its legal or contractual obligations as a collective bargaining agent, or interfere with the legal or contractual obligations of this Local Union as an affiliate of the National Union. Violation or abuse of these rights and privileges of membership, or engaging in conduct prohibited by this section, shall be considered conduct unbecoming a union member.

5.1 POLICY AND OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the Local Union include:

- a. The regulation of labour relations and collective bargaining between employers and employees.

 5. Circumstances beyond a member's control.
4. Failure of any elected or appointed official to comply with the above attendance rules shall result in automatic removal from their respective office or position and they shall not be permitted to run for any elective office or be appointed for the balance of term of office from which they were removed, except as a delegate to the National Constitution Convention.

17.1 TRIALS OF MEMBERS

Charges against a member, or members and their trials shall be conducted in conformance with the National Constitution.

18.1 APPEALS

A member has the right to request a review by a deciding authority arising from an action or decision which the member believes did not have fair and reasonable consideration or lacks a rational basis and which results in an injury or penalty to them.

A request for review must be made within 30 days of:

- The decision or action, or;
- The date the member became aware of the decision of action, or;
- The date the member ought reasonably to have known of the decision or action.

A request for review shall be emailed, mailed, or delivered to the Local Union President, or the accountable body to which the deciding authority reports.

The request for review shall be:

- in writing;
- signed by the member and dated;
- contain a return mail address, email address, phone numbers and other appropriate contact information;
- include the name of an advocate or any person preparing the request for review on behalf of the member;
- specific in describing the action or decision to be reviewed;

- specific in describing why the action was not fair or reasonable or did not have a rational basis;
- specific in describing how the action or decision results in an injury or penalty to them;
- specific in describing the remedy or outcome requested.

A special meeting will be called with the Local Union Executive Board and the appellant. The Local Union Executive Board shall decide if the Appeal is proper, timely and apparently raises a violation. If the appeal is determined not to be timely, or if it is decided that it fails to raise an apparent case of a violation, then the person(s) laying the charge shall be so informed and they may request that the Appeal be listed on the Agenda for the next General Membership Meeting.

At the next General Membership Meeting the appellant will be provided a full and fair opportunity to state their case to the membership.

The Local Union Executive Board shall provide a recommendation to the membership and state their reasons.

The final decision regarding Appeals will be made by the membership.

A member may request a further review by notifying the “Office of the National President – CCM”. This notice must be in writing and submitted within 30 days of receiving the decision by the Local Union.

The procedure as outlined in the Unifor Constitution Policy Regarding Local Union elections and Procedure Policy on Constitutional Matters may be altered from time to time and must be followed.

18.2 CHARGES

A member in good standing or a group of members may file a charge if they have reasonable cause to believe that another member has violated the procedures and responsibilities established by the Unifor Constitution or the Code of Ethics which form part of the Unifor Constitution.

A charge against a member must be:

- in writing;
- filed within 30 days of a violation or knowledge of a violation;
- signed by the member (or group of members) laying the charged and dated;
- contain an email address, home mail address, phone numbers and other appropriate contact information;
- specific in describing the basis of the charge including the Articles of the Unifor Constitution/Code of Ethics that are alleged to have been violated;
- specific in describing the actions of the accused that give rise to the charge.

The charge shall first be sent to the Local Union Executive Board of the accused member. The Local Union Executive Board shall make a determination if the charge is proper. A charge shall be considered proper if it is timely and there are sufficient facts or information that indicates a violation of the Unifor Constitution may have taken place. An accusation, which is considered frivolous or vexatious, is not proper.

If the Local Union determines the charge is proper, it shall immediately inform the Office of the National President that a charge has been filed and notify the accused by email or registered letter within seven (7) days. The Local Union shall forward the charge and a full record of all matters relating to the charge to the Office of the National President. The full record includes all documents or correspondence which may be relevant.

If the Local Union determines the charge is improper, the Local Union will notify the member or group of members in writing. The member(s) laying the charge may appeal the decision, provided the member(s) gives written notice to the Office of the National President within 30 days of receipt of the Local Unions decision. The appeal to the Office of the National President shall include the record of the charge sent to the Local Union. The appellant member(s) may not alter or amend the charge, or include additional information not considered by the Local Union. It must be signed and dated by the member(s) laying the charge.

The procedure as outlined in the Unifor Constitution Policy Regarding Local Union elections and Procedure Policy on Constitutional Matters may be altered from time to time and must be followed.

19.1 UNION PROPERTY

All local union members and officers of the various committees, upon completion of their duties, shall turn over all papers, documents, funds and union property in their possession to the properly constituted local union officers.

20.1 BY-LAWS

These By-Laws may be amended by presenting a motion in writing setting forth the amendments sought to a membership meeting. The motion shall be read to that meeting and referred to the Constitution and By-Laws Committee which will report to the succeeding membership meeting, the notice of which must contain a notice of the particular By-Law amendments that will be considered. If approved by two-thirds of the membership vote thereon at this succeeding meeting, the amendment shall be considered adopted by the membership. Amendments to existing By-Laws, or new By-Laws must be submitted to the National Executive board for approval. The amendments, or the new By-Laws are not effective until approved by the National Executive Board.

20.2 BY-LAWS

All By-laws must be submitted to the National Executive Board for approval.

The candidate for the office of Committeeperson receiving the highest number of votes cast in the zone, shall be declared elected.

22.3 RECALL OF ANY WORKPLACE REP.

An elected Workplace Representative may be recalled by the members s/he represents following a valid petition signed by at least fifty percent (50%) of the members s/he represents. Upon filing of such petition with the local, a special meeting for recall shall be held, of which due notification shall be presented at this special meeting in order for it to proceed. A quorum shall consist of at least fifty percent (50%) of the members that are represented by the elected Workplace Representative. At the conclusion of this special meeting, an affirmative vote by two-thirds (2/3's) of the aforementioned quorum is required to recall the elected Workplace Representative.

22.4 VACANCY

When a vacancy occurs for the position of Office Committeeperson, it shall be filled by election within thirty (30) days.

22.5 ELECTING CHAIRPERSON

Each Unit of Local 673 shall have autonomy to select the method of electing the Office Committee Chairperson.

22.6 METHOD, TERM& VACANCY

1. Each Unit of Local 673 shall have autonomy to select the Bargaining Committee.
2. The Office Committee and Bargaining Committee shall serve for a period of three (3) years.
3. Any office becoming vacant between the Triennial Elections shall be filled for the balance of the term in accordance with these by-laws and the National Constitution.

22.7 REPORTS

The Office Committee Chairperson shall submit written reports of their activities to the Executive Board and to the membership.

22.8 MEETING

The Office Committee shall meet at least once each month. There shall be a roll call at each meeting.

22.9 DUTIES

It is the duty of each Office Committee person to:

1. Attend Office Committee meetings to exchange opinions related to grievances and the demands in the various zones.
2. Become completely familiar with all the provisions of the Collective Agreement and to thoroughly investigate all grievances.
3. Call a special meeting of his/her zone upon the written request of at least fifty percent (50%) of the members in good standing in his/her zone.
4. Carry out all the duties prescribed by the National Union, the Local Union by-laws and to abide by the decisions of the general membership, the Local Union Executive Board, and the members in his/her zone.
